

A new Aldi food store for Sutton Coldfield

Computer Generated Image of the proposed store

A £5m+ investment into the local economy

Regeneration of a long-term vacant brownfield site

A brand new Aldi food store with a sales area of 1,315sq m

Welcome to our virtual exhibition

Award-winning discount food retailer Aldi is bringing forward a planning application for a new, high-quality food store at Brassington Avenue, Sutton Coldfield.

The new store will provide customers with a refreshed, high-quality design, offering customers improved car parking and landscaping around the site.

Aldi is looking to submit a planning application to Birmingham City Council in the coming weeks. We look forward to hearing your thoughts and feedback on our proposals.

Thank you for visiting our virtual public exhibition today. If you have any further comments, queries or questions, please feel free to get in touch by emailing feedback@consultation-online.co.uk or calling the freephone information line on 0800 298 7040.

Regeneration of a brownfield site

Aldi is committed to regional investment and will provide Sutton Coldfield with a refreshed food store that will transform this long-term vacant brownfield site.

A major boost to the local economy, this multi-million pound investment will provide shoppers with an improved shopping experience in a newly updated store replacing the existing tired store in the town centre.

